Antipoverty Failure In Detroit, Target Of Three Probes

DETROIT (AP) — City, state and federal investigators are busily searching the record of Detroit's antipoverty agency today, trying to find out why $50 million in federal funds has helped only a fraction of the city's poor.

By the antipoverty agency's own admission, only 53,283 persons were participating in its programs at the end of last year. The figures, contained in an unpublished quarterly report, represent barely 15 per cent of the 349,718 poor people in the agency's target areas.

Last month, in its report on the riot that killed 43 persons here last summer, the President's Commission on Civil Disorders raised questions about the city agency's performance.

The commission said that $19.6 million in federal funds spent during the first nine months of 1967 provided job opportunities for less than half the city's unemployed. It also said that community action programs costing $12.6 million reached only 30 per cent of the poor.

Since the commission's report, investigators for a Michigan legislative committee, the General Accounting Office of Congress, and the city auditor's office have been examining operations of the antipoverty agency—Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh's Committee for Human Resources Development.

Among the things they are looking at:

—The agency headquarters is in a 40-year-old building it leased from one of Cavanagh's former business associates. In two years the annual rent has nearly equalled the building's $180,000 purchase price.

—Antipoverty officials bought $80,000 worth of dental equipment in mid-1966. Through December 1967, exactly four patients had been treated.

—Job programs have piled atop one another, creating, in the words of an antipoverty official, "some accidental overlaps."

—The city's antipoverty program has been late or irregular in paying its bills.

—On-the-job training funds sometimes have gone to employers for training workers who already had dropped out of the program.

—$150,000 has been spent developing performance measurement techniques with more to follow. Yet officials couldn't provide some routine statistics required for their last quarterly report to the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Only New York and Chicago have received more antipoverty funds than Detroit, the nation's fifth largest city. Antipoverty money allocated to Detroit is channeled through a single agency—the Mayor's Committee for Human Resources Development. In all other major cities, except Chicago, the funds go to private, non-profit community action programs.

Efforts to discuss the antipo-erty program with Mayor Cavanagh failed. He canceled two appointments with reporters, and did not return a telephone call.

But Richard Simmons Jr., third director of the Detroit operation in its three years, defended the program. "I don't just think we are, I know we're getting to the people," he said in an interview.

Racial Violence Continues: Toll Hits 34 Dead

By The Associated Press
Racial violence struck in major American cities for the sixth consecutive night since the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., raising the national death toll for the period to 34. All but five were Negroes.

While some of the worst hit cities cooled to the point where curfews were relaxed and patrols decreased, fresh outbreaks hit Tuesday in Trenton, N.J., Jacksonville, Fla., and Kansas City. Each city reported one death.

Firemen in New York City battled 25 fires which broke out almost simultaneously in a racially mixed Brooklyn slum which has twice been the scene of disturbances since King's murder in Memphis last Thursday.

In Newark firefighters responded to six major fires and 75 minor ones in the first incidents of arson reported in the heavily Negro Central Ward since last summer's riots.

But many Negroes helped firemen to carry hoses and authorities sent sound trucks through the streets broadcasting recordings of King's "I have a dream" speech.

Meanwhile calm generally prevailed in the stricken neighborhoods of Chicago and Pittsburgh and officials in Washington and Baltimore expressed cautious optimism that violence in their cities may have run its course.

In Kansas City one Negro was killed, at least 35 persons injured and more than 175 arrested in a night of shooting, burning and looting that followed in the wake of a memorial march for King.

Some 2,200 National Guardsmen were dispatched to aid city and state police but the combined force of 3,300 did not control the outbreaks until after midnight.

Steals Building

UTICA (AP) — Shelby Township police got an unusual phone call Tuesday. "There's a man stealing a building!" an alarmed citizen reported.

Sure enough, a man was stealing a utility building. The man, whose name was withheld pending further investigation, dismantled the building and carted it off after a dispute with the owner of the house he had been renting.

King Death Expected To Assure Civil Rights Act

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the House Rules Committee, a Mississippi Democrat opposed to the civil rights bill, says enactment of the measure would be a direct result of Dr. Martin Luther King's slaying.

The House is to vote today on the bill—which includes a provision to ban discrimination in the sale or rental of about 80 per cent of the nation's housing—and most predictions are it will

Romney Eases Lid On Detroit

By The Associated Press
After five days of heavily enforced quiet, the first of 3,000 National Guardsmen today moved out of Detroit and Gov. George Romney announced a partial lifting of his state of emergency restrictions.

Romney eased emergency restrictions against liquor sales and public assembly, and modified curfew hours.

"Unless there is some change in the situation, the emergency order will be lifted entirely tomorrow (Thursday)," Romney said at a news conference.

The governor and Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh slapped the emergency measures on the city of 1.6-million people Friday because isolated disturbances erupted after the assassination of the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. Thursday in Memphis, Tenn.

Romney eased total restriction against liquor sales, by banning them only between midnight and 5 a.m. He said places of amusement must be closed between midnight and 5 a.m.

No Play, No Pay

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — The Grand Rapids Pops Orchestra, a group of about 25 adults, was given an ultimatum Monday when it asked the city's Public Recreation Board for more funds to continue the current season. Last year the musical group put on several concerts which drew little attention and so far has failed to schedule any public performances this year. The board, in effect, told the orchestra, "no play, no pay."

win passage and be sent to President Johnson for signing.

"I am confident that on Thursday before Dr. Martin Luther King was assassinated, the administration and the leadership did not have the votes," said Chairman William M. Colmer after the bill was cleared in committee on a 9 to 6 vote and sent to the floor.

"Under The Gun"

Colmer also told newsmen Tuesday he thinks the measure would instead have gone to a House-Senate conference committee charged with working out a compromise—particularly on the controversial open-housing provision.

Colmer called it "legislating under the gun" to consider the bill so soon after King's slaying. But the bill's supporters were predicting before King's death last Thursday that the legislation would be enacted in its present form.

A key figure in the committee's action was Rep. John B. Anderson, R-Ill., who switched in favor of a yes-or-no House decision today after voting three weeks ago against such a move.

Anderson said his mail was running two to one against the bill's open housing provision.

Only one hour has been allotted for debate before the voting begins. But with many delaying devices available to opponents, it could be late today before the issue is settled.

Provisions in the bill, particularly the open-housing section, have been the subject to talk for nearly two years in either the House or Senate. In 1966 the House passed an open-housing bill but the Senate refused to take it up.

Two other sections of the bill, one designed to protect civil rights workers and the other to make inciting a riot a federal crime, passed the House last year.

The bill would also extend the protections of the Bill of Rights to American Indians.

Red Viet Shipping

WASHINGTON (AP) — Twelve Free World flag ships arrived in North Vietnam in March, Rep. Charles E. Chamberlain, R-Mich., said Tuesday.

"This brings the total for the first three months of 1968 to 30 Free World arrivals, a more than 100 per cent increase over the 14 arrivals during the first quarter of 1967," he said.

Humphrey Ready To Enter Race

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 1968 political campaign—at a virtual standstill since the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King and the violence it touched off—regained momentum today.

Sens. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., and Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., the only announced Democratic presidential candidates, planned campaigning in Indiana and Nebraska, respectively.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, reported ready to enter the Democratic race after Easter, was a likely candidate to throw out the first ball at the Washington Senators American League baseball season opener against the Minnesota Twins.

Republican Richard M. Nixon was the only announced presidential candidate with no campaign plans for the day.

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller—citing "crisis and confusion probably without parallel in our history"—meanwhile announced he is readying major position statements on national and international issues.

All five of the political figures were among national leaders who attended King's funeral Tuesday in Atlanta.

Rockefeller said March 21 when he declared he was not a presidential candidate that he would speak out on the issues and try to influence his party's platform and philosophies.

He also said then that he would accept a presidential draft.

While McCarthy headed for Nebraska, his appeal to Connecticut Democrats was being tested in 30 local primaries for the election of state convention delegates.

Plan To Clear Saigon Area Of Enemy Forces

SAIGON (AP) — More than 100,000 troops of five nations fanned out today over the Saigon area and 11 provinces around the capital in the biggest allied offensive of the war. Only light, scattered action was reported, and a general lull in the ground fighting in Vietnam continued for the second day.

The U.S. Command announced that the big new sweep around the capital, Operation Toan Thang, or Complete Victory, began Monday. Its objective is the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops who got away from the 50,000 American and South Vietnamese troops in Operation Quyet Thang, or Resolved to Win.

U.S. headquarters announced Tuesday that Quyet Thang, a sweep of five provinces around Saigon, had ended with 2,658 enemy killed. But when it began early in March, a force of 13,000 Viet Cong and units of two North Vietnamese regiments were reported maneuvering around the capital, possibly for a renewal of the Tet offensive against the city.

Keep 'em Running

U.S. spokesmen explained that Quyet Thang and all other allied operations in the 3rd Corps area terminated Sunday, and all allied forces which had been participating in them began Toan Thang on Monday.

Brig. Gen. Winant Sidle, chief information officer for the U.S. Command, said Toan Thang is "only a continuation of what we were doing. It is designed to clear the enemy out and keep them on the run."

The U.S. Command said the aim of the new drive is "the elimination of enemy forces throughout the 11 provinces in the 3rd Corps tactical zone."

The operation involves three U.S. divisions and the equivalent of a fourth, three South Vietnamese divisions, two South Vietnamese paratroop and marine task forces, the 1st Australian Task Force, which includes New Zealand troops, and the Royal Thai Army Regiment.

Ground Action Slim

There was no report of casualties so far in the operation.

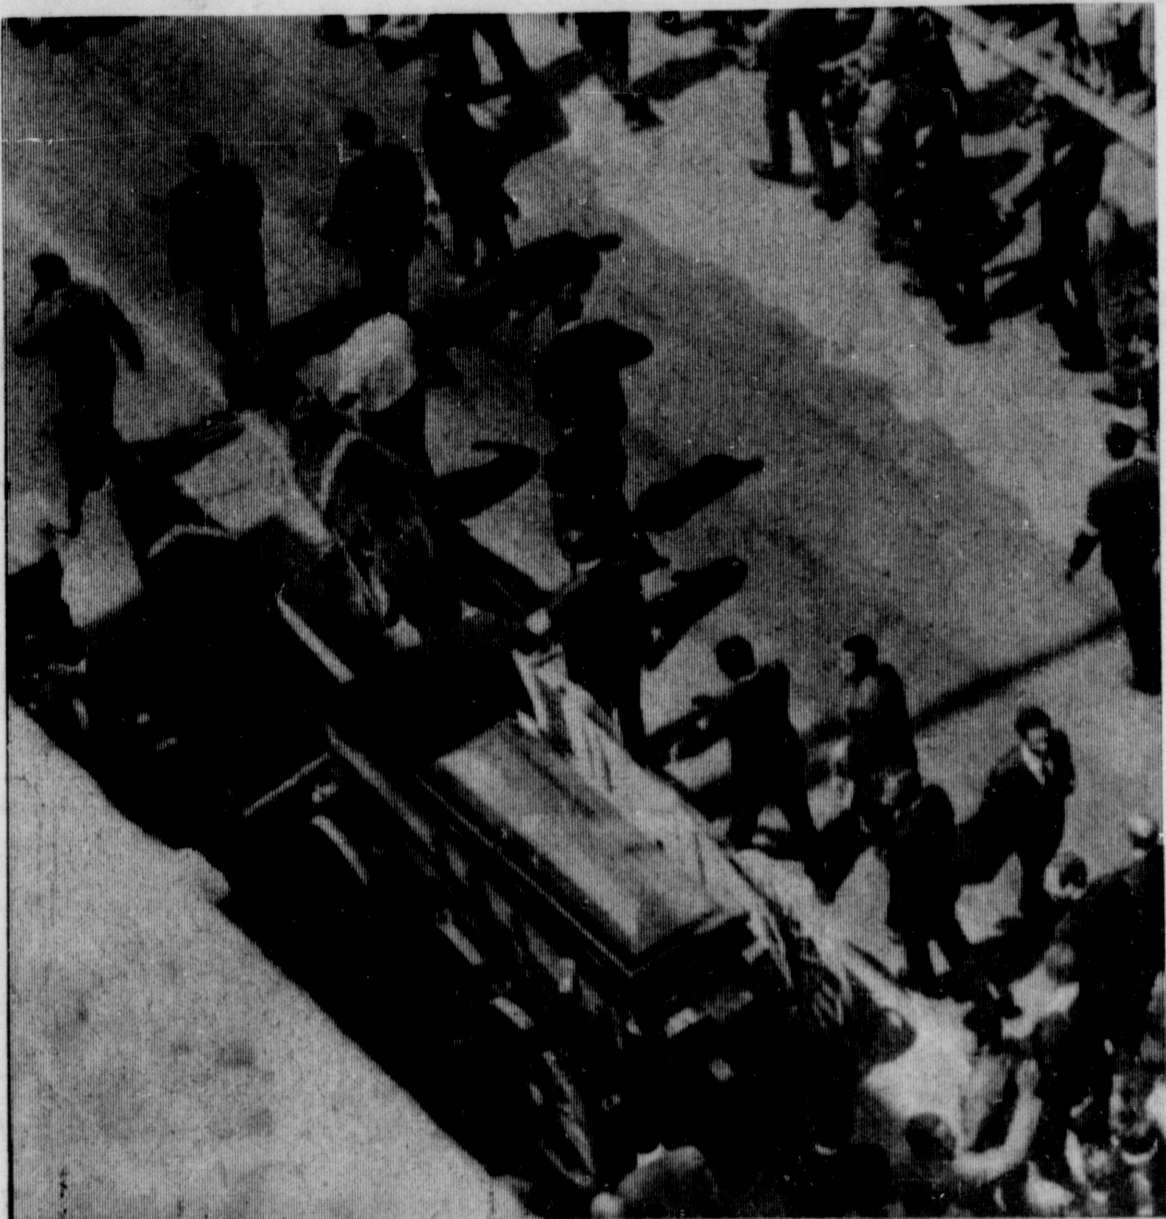

No major ground fighting was reported elsewhere in Vietnam for the second straight day, and for the first time in nearly three months not a single enemy mortar, rocket or artillery round landed on the shell-scarred Marine combat base at Khe Sanh over a 24-hour period. From Jan. 21 until Tuesday, North Vietnamese gunners had kept up a relentless daily shelling, sometimes as many as 1,500 rounds in one day, sometimes as few as 50.

Pound Supply Lines

The big U.S. B52 Stratofortresses flew four raids in the central highlands Tuesday night, attacking close to the Cambodian border amid evidence of a North Vietnamese buildup there. New supply roads and infiltration trails winding in from Cambodia have been spotted.

The curtailed U.S. air campaign against North Vietnam continued Tuesday with pilots staying below the 19th Parallel for the sixth consecutive day. They flew 131 missions against supply routes in the southern panhandle. The U.S. Command said the deepest penetration was a strike against a railroad siding 168 miles north of the demilitarized zone and two miles below the 19th Parallel.

In Saigon, President Nguyen Van Thieu asked the National Assembly to vote general mobilization of the country.

Uniformed Police Guard Tomb Of Slain Dr. King

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Uniformed police stood watch today at the tomb of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., the slain civil rights leader whose funeral brought outpourings of mourners and tributes rarely matched in the nation's history.

Mourners trickled into South View Cemetery for a look at the crypt even after darkness fell Tuesday. Inscribed on the Georgia marble are the words of an old slave song often quoted by King: "Free at Last, Free at Last; Thank God Almighty, I'm Free at Last."

A police official said the guards were posted as a precaution, and there had been no hint of attempts to molest the grave.

King, 39, was killed by a sniper in Memphis, Tenn. He had returned for another march of striking garbage workers after an earlier march erupted into rioting.

His followers called for the nation to look at itself anew as they pledged at the final rites to carry out his crusade against racism, poverty and injustice.

"Let us see to it that we do not dishonor his name by trying to solve our problems through rioting in the streets," urged Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, retired president of Morehouse College, King's alma mater, where outdoor services were held.

"But let us see to it also that the conditions that cause riots are promptly removed," said Mays. "Let black and white alike search their hearts; and if there be any prejudice in our hearts against any racial or ethnic group, let us exterminate it."

Face Choice

Mays, who taught King in college, said the American people, including Memphis officials, are in part responsible for the assassination. In a similar vein, the biracial Southern Regional Council, a human rights organization, said in a four-column newspaper ad that white America faces "the choice between the kind of society for which Dr. King lived and died, and the kind of society which denies equal opportunity."

Marching had been a big part of King's life. So in death, there was a final march for Martin Luther King. His wreath-shrouded coffin traveled more than four miles over Atlanta streets in a faded green farm wagon drawn by two brown mules—symbolic of the poor whose cause he had taken up.

Thousands marched with King the last time.

Cargo's Colonels Costly To State

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — New Mexico Secretary of State Ernestine Evans, a Democrat, says the number of honorary colonels in the state is damaging her budget.

She says Republican Gov. David Cargo has commissioned 4,600 honorary colonels as aide de camp to the governor since he took office in January 1967. He sent another batch of 250 commissions to her office this week, she says.

"I have already spent $170 for the gold seals for the commissions and $35 for the ribbons for the seal," she said.

Vietnam Talk Site Accord Is Delayed

THURMONT, Md. (AP) — Prospects for peace in Vietnam appeared cloudy as ever as President Johnson wrapped up marathon war-and-peace strategy talks at the Camp David mountain retreat.

Although Johnson announced Tuesday he had dispatched a second formal message to Hanoi, he said nothing and merely shook his head negatively when asked at nightfall if there had been any subsequent developments.

No administration comment was immediately available on word reaching the United States early today that North Vietnam is insisting that any peace talks be held in Phnom Penh, Cambodia. The U.S. government has been strongly opposed to that site since it no longer has diplomatic relations with Cambodia, a circumstance that could cause communications and logistics problems.

The chief executive, spending a second night at Camp David, planned a morning return by helicopter to the White House today to greet Chancellor Josef Klaus of Austria.

While millions of Americans watched and listened Tuesday to seven hours of funeral observances for Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. on television and radio, the President was closeted at his Marine-guarded hideaway with top diplomatic and military advisers.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey was his representative at the King rites.

Johnson's last official guest at Camp David was the U.S. Pacific commander, Adm. U.S. Grant Sharp, who flew in by helicopter for an hour's visit Tuesday night. Sharp is retiring in July.

Latest activity on the Vietnam peace front began Monday when Johnson announced receipt of a formal message from Hanoi, replying to his own earlier communication to the North Vietnamese government.

In disclosing Tuesday that he had dispatched yet another message to North Vietnam, Johnson said the two adversaries in the Vietnam war were "discussing a number of alternative locations" for preliminary talks "which could be convenient to both sides."

There the matter rested.

Area Budget Approved With 5.9 Mill Request

A tentative budget of $2,647,470 and a 5.9 mill tax proposal to pay for it were approved Tuesday night by the Escanaba Area Board of Education.

The budget, which would be the largest in school district history if given final approval later this year, called for expenditures of $357,523 over the curtailed budget in effect this year.

It also exceeds estimated revenues by some $275,063, according to figures prepared by Supt. of Schools Luther M. Barrett and Business Manager Stephen C. Baltic.

The 5.9 mills, if approved, would raise about $322,500 on the district's 1968 tax base. Any excess revenues would be used to retire a debt estimated between $90,000 and $108,000 which will carryover from this year's operations.

"We're still hopeful that the deficit will be about $90,000," Baltic told the school board.

He said, however, that the deficit could range as high as $108,000, depending on what revenues the district receives this spring.

Third Election
The 5.9 mill proposal will be considered by voters of the district at a special election scheduled May 6.

It will be the third special millage election for the district in the past year. A proposal asking five mills was defeated last August and another request, this one for seven mills, was defeated in February. Barrett told the Board of Education that the tentative budget includes allowances for about 75 per cent of the teaching and non-professional staff contract proposals. He said that these are estimated in excess of $150,000.

The requests by school district employees, he said, counterbalance gains in revenue expected by the school district from the Delta County Tax Allocation board, an improved state aid formula and a greater tax base.

Formula Explained

He said that the new state aid formula, if approved by the legislature in its current form, would provide the school district with $264.24 per membership child compared with the 1967-68 allotment of $248.97 per child — an increase of $15.27 per student.

Based on an anticipated enrollment of 4,650, the new formula would provide about $71,000 in additional revenue.

An increase in school district valuation of some $4.3 million would yield another $63,000 and if the County Tax Allocation Board allocates an extra mill this year (raising the Area school district from 7.2 mills to 8.2 mills) another $56,000 would be expected.

The total increase would be about $190,000 over revenues for the 1967-68 school year. Despite the increase, Barrett estimated that the district still faces a deficit of about $275,063 in 1968-69 unless the additional millage is approved. The 1967-68 deficit also must be recovered.

Two-Year Proposal

The millage proposal would allow retirement of the current operating debt in two years. The ballot will ask approval of the millage for two years.

All six members of the Board of Education present voted in favor of the 5.9 mill request, including Ralph Kaziateck, who was appointed to the board last week to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Forrest Henslee. Kaziateck abstained from the voting on the budget as he was unfamiliar with the figures presented at his first meeting.

In other action, the Board accepted "with regret" the resignation of Henslee; appointed the following school census takers — Audrey Fix, Phyllis Tolman, Ethel Victorson, Mary Meyer and Roma Anderson of Escanaba, Arthur Nelson of Ford River, Ethel Wright of Cornell, and Mrs. William Olson of Wells, and employed 30 persons as election inspectors for the May 6 election.

The board also gave approval to site development plans for the Washington School and some additional developments at the new Franklin and Jefferson Schools and authorized the administration to prepare specifications and advertise for bids.

Cost of the developments will be paid from the 1966 Building and Site Fund.

Barrett Given New Contract

The contract of Escanaba Area Supt. of Schools Luther M. Barrett was extended for three years at a base salary of $16,000 Tuesday by the Board of Education.

Barrett, who came to Escanaba in 1964 to succeed Walter Bright, will serve with the district through the 1970-71 school year.

A graduate of a Topeka, Kan., high school, Barrett received his bachelor's degree at DePauw University, Greencastle, Ind., in 1940 and received his master's degree from the University of Michigan in 1951.

During World War II he served in the U.S. Navy as a PT boat commander in the South Pacific.

His teaching experience includes classroom assignments at the Howe, Ind., Military School and at the Dye Community School, Flint. He was named principal at the Flint school before moving to superintendent of the Utley Community School, Flint, in 1953.

Served At Kentwood

In 1959, he was named superintendent of the Kentwood public schools, Grand Rapids, where he served until coming to Escanaba.

Barrett resides with his wife, Barbara, at 101 S. 2nd St. They have two children, Saily, a college student, and James, a teacher in the Gladstone public schools.

In another administrative action, the Board named Louis Diedrich director of its summer reading program and Kenneth Myllyla to direct the pre-school readiness program. Both programs are funded under the Elementary-Secondary Education Act of the federal government.

Diedrich's appointment was by a 4-2 vote after the Board of Education divided on Barrett's recommendation that Floyd Cassidy be named to direct the reading program.

The superintendent said that Diedrich had done a fine job in directing the program over the past two years, but added that he hoped the experience of the program and its financial benefits in summer salary could be given to other qualified administrators.

Developed Program

Diedrich, who was present at the meeting, said he still wanted the position and pointed out that he had worked from the start to develop it.

The Board action granted Diedrich another year as director of the program, but limited future directorship appointments to two years in duration if other qualified administrators are interested. Board members Albin Pearson Jr., Richard Hanson, Ralph Kaziateck and Claude Bonn voted in favor of the action with Mrs. Robert Mosenfelder and Roland Collins opposed.

Rapid River To Ask Two Mills

Rapid River School District will vote on Monday, May 6, on a proposal to levy a tax of five mills for three years for school operation.

The polls will be open from 7 a. m., to 8 p. m.

The district, which embraces Masonville, Bay de Noc and Ensign townships, now levies 14.7 mills plus 2.5 mills for debt service. Three mills of this levy are expiring and the district board of education proposes to replace the expiring levy with a 5 mill levy.

This would make a total of 16.7 mills for operation, of which 6.7 mills were allocated from the 15-mill general property tax, and 5 mills voted in May, 1967 for operation after the district lost its accreditation.

If a "Yes" vote puts over the 5 mill levy, which would add 2 mills to the existing levy, the schools plan the hiring of two additional teachers, one in the high school and one in the elementary school. This would take two mills. Also planned if the millage carries is re-equipment of the business education and industrial arts areas of the schools.

The Rapid River Board of Education announced it will hold a public meeting at 7:30 p. m., Wednesday, April 17, at the Stonington Grange Hall to answer questions pertaining to the special election.

North Central Traffic Volume Continues Climb

North Central Airlines reports continued growth in the volume of passenger traffic, with a total of 1,509 passengers served at Escanaba in March this year. The report, from Jon Thorin, airport manager, shows that 11 locally based planes and 84 transients also used the airport last month.

The North Central total of 1,509 in March this year compares to 1,251 for the same month a year ago and 1,128 in 1966.

Why Not Us?

We wondered why the U. S. Bureau of Sports Fisheries was not planting lake trout in the great sweep of waters from Menominee east to Naubinway in Mackinac County, so we asked some questions.

The importance of being included in the federal and state fish planting programs for any area that aspires to tourist business is obvious. But while the Bay de Noc and other areas along the Lake Michigan riviera were doing their darnedest to develop sports lake fishing, the U. S. Bureau of Sport Fisheries put no fish in their waters.

The latest announcement of plantings gives us more of the same. The Lake Superior plantings have increased almost every year since 1958, when 987,000 lakers were released. This year's total is 2,100,000 trout.

The high intensity plantings in Lake Superior, it is explained, are to determine whether this will greatly increase reproduction rates. Since 1965 plantings in Upper Peninsula waters of Lake Superior have been twice as heavy as in earlier years. Nothing wrong with such experimentation: its findings hold the hope for much greater efficiency in fish plantings.

But the planting plans for Lake Michigan waters propose release of 800,000 trout and only 100,000 of them will be planted in Upper Peninsula waters, which has about a third of the Michigan shoreline exposure to Lake Michigan. The two U. P. plantings will be 50,000 at Epoufette and 50,000 at Naubinway, both in Mackinac County.

Nary a trout for Schoolcraft, Delta or Menominee counties, which stretch 200 miles of shore as the crow flies (actually much more lineally) from Menominee to Naubinway.

Why? Well, first off, the decision not to plant there isn't capricious nor discriminatory. It was made by specialists who want to get the most fish for the taxpayers' money in an equitable distribution. The State Conservation Department participates in the decision by representation (by Myrl Keller of Charlevoix) on the advisory committee on plantings.

Experience has shown that the trout planted in north Lake Michigan shore waters spread out, some eastward into Lake Huron (which hasn't any federal lake trout planting program yet) and some west as far as the Wisconsin waters of Lake Michigan.

As more trout became available at the hatcheries for the planting program to restock the lakes (depleted of trout by the sea lampreys), the planters moved down the east (Lower Peninsula) shore of Lake Michigan. They had learned that trout planted in the Grand Traverse Bay area (which had developed a big sports fishery before the lamprey kill-off of trout) tended to stay in those waters.

As the plantings moved south in Lower Peninsula waters of Lake Michigan, fish from stock which had come from Lower Lake Michigan waters and been put in green (inland) lakes downstate were used. They were judged best suited to conditions in the lower part of the lake.

A strong factor in the decision to skip plantings along the U. P. riviera, except at its eastern end (Naubinway and Epoufette) was the criticism of the federal trout planting program by commercial fishermen of the riviera ports. When the Federal Bureau of Sports Fisheries said that too many of its planted lake trout were being taken in gill nets set for whitefish by Schoolcraft, Delta and Menominee county commercial fishermen, the commercial fishermen replied that the program had erred in planting trout on whitefish grounds.

The Epoufette plantings had been caught by fishermen from Manistique, Escanaba and even Wisconsin ports so the planters decided to keep that pattern of releases.

If there's enough demand from sports fishermen the Federal Bureau of Sports Fisheries might change its planting schedule, but fish specialists seem to think that the Bureau is not just responding to the criticism of commercial fishermen in not planting our waters, but that it makes sense on its merits.

We would question this, fearing that the lack of plantings along more than 200 miles of coastline will inevitably mean fewer trout for fishermen to catch in our waters. It seems to us that the rather natural retort of the commercial fishermen to criticism of their taking of planted lake trout in whitefish nets has brought forth a do-nothing solution. This isn't good enough in a place and time that needs maximum development of both our sports fishery and commercial fishery.

Both sports fishermen and commercial fishermen should ask a closer look at this policy. Better harvest techniques might solve the problem much more helpfully than to solve it by making lake trout scarce.

On The Passover:

God Bid: 'Let My People Go'

EDITOR'S NOTE — Passover is the great Jewish festival of freedom, beginning this year on April 12. It celebrates the deliverance of the Jews from one of the many attempts during their history at a "final solution" against them—this one the time they were in bondage in Egypt.

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

On that day, the weak won. On that day, downtrodden men stood tall. An unbounded nation was born that day, and a lasting heritage emerged to permeate the world. On that day, freedom first flamed. And people, in common, got their first basic answer to the deepest mystery of life.

That is the legacy of Pesach—the Passover. Fiery words forged its origin: "Thus says the Lord... 'Let my people go!'"

It was a divine imperative, flung by Moses into the face of tyranny more than 3,250 years ago, and in that primal human struggle for liberty, the enslaved went free, unleashing an enduring, universal vision.

"This day shall be for you a memorial day," Scripture enjoins, "and you shall keep it as a feast to the Lord; throughout your generations you shall observe it as an ordinance forever."

The great Jewish festival of freedom begins this year on the evening of Friday, April 12, celebrating an event which has cast its imprint through history ever since and which also is honored in Christianity and linked with it.

"Why is this night different from all other nights?" the youngest child asks in each Jewish family after it sits down for the commemorative evening meal, the Seder. And the head of the household leads the "Haggadah"—the retelling of the grand, old story.

"We were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt," but the Lord our God rescued us. With a mighty hand and outstretched arm, the Lord brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage."

That amazing deliverance, of the powerless from the powerful, shaped the conscience of Judaism, confirmed the sacred covenant with its forefathers, drew its people into nationhood, and answered a profound question.

It disclosed to a whole community, for the first time in the recorded annals of man, an indication of what God is like. It attested that He is the One Who saves, Who frees from oppression, Who cares for the lowly, Whose love redeems the lost.

"Praise the Lord... He raises the poor from the dust, and lifts the needy from the ash heap," reads the Hallel, a selection of Psalms 113-118 chanted at the Passover Seder.

"Our God is merciful... He has delivered my soul from death and has become my salvation... He has given us light... O give thanks to the Lord, for He is good: for His steadfast love endures forever."

This joyous gratitude, as expressed through the centuries, has come to be for redemption not only from an ancient despotism, but for the divine activity it showed forth against all domineering exploitation of man, and in behalf of the helpless.

It instilled Judaism's abiding concern for the afflicted, the victimized, the dispossessed, the lonely stranger. "You shall love him as yourself, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt," Moses ordered. And a Seder reading goes:

"All who are hungry, come eat with us! All you who are in need, come celebrate the Passover with us."

At its fundamental core, however, the event stands, in the Biblical account of salvation, as the key, initial action by which God made Himself known to an entire people.

In that primitive era of surrounding superstition and idol-worship, the Israelites themselves groped in religious shadows. They refrained, in wordless awe, from any designation of the Almighty, using only an enigmatic tetragrammaton, "YHWH."

Who is God? "What is His name?" Moses asked in bewilderment when seized by a burning demand that he lead the mass flight of the slave laborers from Egypt. Through the bush-fire of his conscience, he got only a baffling response, "I Am Who I Am."

But the astounding escape from a living death, aided by a succession of extraordinary incidents seen as God's intervention, cleared away some of the mystery. "Thou, O Lord, lightens my darkness," goes a Passover reading from II Samuel 22.

By acting among men, in their affairs, God had identified Himself as He Who shows mercy. Who pities the suffering, Who emancipates from the worldly chains of power, wealth and other snares, and Whose central purpose is to save.

The week-long Passover observance starts with the Seder, a candle-lit ceremonial meal of story, prayer and exhortation, held the first night at home, and in many cases, on the second night at the synagogue.

As a seasonal observance, Passover also includes the ensuing "Week of Unleavened Bread," which marked the start of the barley harvest in Palestine. As one of three major pilgrim festivals, the occasion drew thousands to Jerusalem, up to the destruction of the Temple by Roman forces in 70 A. D.

It remains a week of fast, with no labor and special services on the first and final days. "Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread," Scripture directs. "And in the first...

and in the seventh day, there shall be a holy convocation, and no manner of work shall be done in them."

It marks the formative, significantly revealing experience of Judaism, a timeless lesson of past, present and future, shared also by Christians, and akin to their affirmation of a later revealing crossing—led by Christ—from crucifixion to life.

Celebration of both events find God's redemption in them. Both involve luminous personalities, Moses and Jesus. Both are seen as manifesting God's ways in human history. Both signify freedom—from shackles of injustice and sin. Both assert divine grace bestowed on men.

Both Judaism and its offspring, Christianity, draw their faith from happenings—from events—in the conviction that the only realistic understanding of God comes solely as He Himself chooses to provide it in human history.

That is the Biblical outlook and method, a record of earthly occurrences in which God's participation is perceived and by which He progressively defines His will and ways to men, as they are able to grasp it. This makes for a religion of history, rather than metaphysical abstractions, in distinction from Oriental philosophies.

On this basis, both Passover and its Christian corollary, Easter, perpetuate a message of hope—that in the midst of adversity, God offers salvation. "I shall not die, out I shall live," goes the Passover Hallel, predating, yet resembling, the Easter theme. "This is the Lord's doing; and it is marvelous in our eyes."

A Passover meal was Jesus' last supper. "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer," He told His apostles. The meal became the central rite of Christian worship, signifying God's presence with men.

Jesus also is called the "Lamb of God," a designation drawn from the olden struggle in Egypt, in which Jewish houses marked with lamb's blood were protected from a wave of death which "passed over" them, striking only Egyptian homes.

That gave the festival its name. And it has handed down its lesson in liberty to generations since.

Girl Is Advised To Dump Aging Romeo

Dear Ann Landers: You will swear this letter is a phony, because my story reads like a four-bit novel I am begging you to take it seriously because I am on the level.

I go to a well-known girl's school in the East. I became engaged to a Princeton senior three months ago. When I went to his home to meet his parents I flipped over his father. I told myself it was too crazy for words and I tried to laugh it off, but I can't laugh any more, and neither can he. We have met in Manhattan several times and he is as zonked over me as I am over him. He wants to divorce his wife and marry me next year.

My fiancé knows nothing of this. I am tearing myself to pieces with indecision. Could it work? He is 27 years older than I am. His wife is three years older than he is and a semi-invalid. After being with Senior, Junior strikes me as Amateur Knight. Could this marriage possibly work? Help me, please I am not sleeping very well these nights.—MISS ICARUS (GET IT?)

Dear Miss Icarus: Yeah, I get it and my advice is Drop Daedalus—no pun intended. If you can't sleep now how much sleep do you think you'll get if you allow this aging Romeo to dump his ailing wife and walk off with his son's sweetheart? The man must have rocks in his head and you have a few sizable boulders yourself, Kiddo.

This whole scene is a cross between Sigmund Freud and a Greek tragedy. Forget it.

Dear Ann Landers: May I say something in defense of Gladys, the woman who says there is "nothing so terrible" about leaving the price tag on a gift? She has my vote.

I am a store manager who would be very pleased if all the customers left the sales slips, price tags and all other tags on the gifts. When merchandise is brought back to the store for exchange it is a real headache if all signs of size, price, and sales are removed. The person who brings in the article has no knowledge of the purchase, of course, and can be of little help.

The idea of concealing the price so the person will not know what you spent is ridiculous. Most people can just about guess. And what difference are coming when a generation loses heart. The Christian should patrol the military-industrial complex of this and every country—for it must always be a servant of the people and for some of its experts, that will be hard. H. G. Wells warned of the "dangers of power without control. The development of intelligence at the expense of human sympathy."

Poster Art (White Rabbit) and the Christian Style.

By DAVID POLING

Lent tells us about the spiritual life without Technicolor, soul music, or strobe lights. There was no glamor in thorn-shaped like a crown. The loss of friends and the exit of companions is a bitter way to face the end. Not everyone is able to be a true Christian. Yet the invitation is there. The risks can be as fatal for the Christian as they are for the white rabbit. But the reward is lasting fellowship with Jesus Christ. (Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

Delta Tax Valuation Hiked $6.2 Million

By DAVE ANDREWS

The 1968 tax valuation of Delta County was equalized at $87.5 million by the Board of Supervisors Tuesday—a whopping $6.2 million increase from the $81.3 million valuation of 1967.

The increase was the largest in Delta County in recent years and will provide additional tax revenue to county, city and school treasuries.

Largest increases came in the cities of Escanaba and Gladstone and in Wells Township.

Escanaba was equalized at $36,781,582, a climb of about $2.6 million from last year. Gladstone rose about $1.1 million to $9,597,238 and Wells was up about $1.5 million to $14,709,116.

The three units accounted for $5.2 million of the total $6.2 million increase.

Law Applied

Part of the gain was due to the application of state law which required that real and personal property be assessed at 50 per cent of true cash value.

Delta Tax Director Peter T. Ross said this accounts for about $2.9 million of the increase and represents about $1.5 million of the total $2.6 million increase in Escanaba.

The valuation of the Escanaba Area School District in Delta County rose some $4.3 million from $52,141,111 in 1967 to $56,440,472. Using the district's present 14.7 mills levied for operation, the valuation increase would mean an additional $63,200 in local revenue to the financially-stricken district. The increase in the valuation, however, will reduce state aid, leaving a smaller net gain.

The Escanaba Area schools are expected to end 1967-68 operations with a deficit of some $90,000 and the previously projected income figures had indicated an additional shortage of some $320,000 for 1968-69 unless additional revenues were obtained.

A request for seven mills was rejected by school district voters in February.

Gross Shown

Besides the increase from application of the 50 per cent assessment ratio, the county experienced a general growth in 1967, Ross indicated.

In Escanaba, he pointed out, valuation rose about $1 million, partially because inventories generally showed an increase. He said there was also considerable new residential construction, particularly in Escanaba and in Wells and Ford River Townships.

Across Delta County, Ross said, the new construction was "more than normal."

Valuations for the various governmental units in the county as equalized were:

Cities — Escanaba, $36,781,582; Gladstone, $9,597,238; Townships — Baldwin, $1,759,429; Bark River, $2,129,426; Bay de Noc, $1,263,591; Brampton, $1,935,554; Cornell, $1,559,635; Ensign, $1,226,510; Escanaba, $3,012,828; Fairbanks, $815,860; Ford River, $3,390,139; Garden, $1,916,689; Maple Ridge, $1,788,160; Masonville, $3,763,002; Nahma, $1,882,784; and Wells, $14,709,116.

Builders Forecast Housing Activity

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Association of Home Builders says its surveyors in 100 metropolitan areas are more optimistic now about housing activity this year than they were three months ago.

Despite signs of tighter credit, the association said its samplers now foresee a 10 per cent increase in housing starts this year. The forecast was five per cent for 1968 at the time of the last survey in December.

Should the new forecast be realized, housing starts this year would rise to 1.43 million compared with 1.3 million last year.

The association said many of the analyses were made before the Federal Reserve Board raised its discount rate in mid-March from 4.5 to 5 per cent.

State Considers Civil Service Pay Setting Changes

LANSING (AP) — Revised procedures for setting pay rates for the state's some 42,000 civil service employees will be considered by the State Civil Service Commission at its meeting April 16.

Principal State Department and recognized employee organizations would be allowed increased participation in the pay determination process under the proposed plan.

Under current procedures, the four-member commission holds two public hearings late in the year to hear from both principal department and employee groups before making a decision on pay rates.

Under the new proposal, principal departments would be required to confer with employee organizations on pay matters and either certify agreement or disagreement to the commission by Oct. 1.

Hearings then would be held Oct. 29 and on Nov. 19 a tentative pay plan would be announced. A second hearing would be held Dec. 2 and a final decision would be made shortly thereafter.

Apartment Burns, Family Has House

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the hundreds of fires that swept sections of the nation's capital after violence broke out last Thursday night destroyed the four-room apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Everett, parents of five.

A social agency helping the several hundred people made homeless by similar fires found the Everetts a new place to live — a three-story, white brick row house at $9 less rent a month and with two more bedrooms than they had.

"I'm sorry things happened like this, the fire and all," said Mrs. Everett Tuesday. "But I've been wanting a house for a long time."

Regional Adviser

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Michigan man, Dr. Harold C. Taylor of the W.E. Upjohn Institute for Employment Research, has been named chairman of the North Central Regional Manpower Advisory Committee.

"SPRING IS SPRUNG, THE GRASS IS RIZ," so the saying goes, and just in time for Spring and Easter was the presentation of spring and summer fashions at the meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club last evening at the Sherman Hotel. The fashion show was presented by the Mata Brown Shop, Mrs. Angeline Hakes, owner. Models were all members of the BPW Club. Pictured from left: Bonnie Maki wears a marigold and white three piece orlon and nylon knit suit accented with a white and gold straw hat. The suit is machine washable; Lorraine Hiller is lovely in a pink linen two piece dress worn with a white ruffled hat with a pink bow. This dress would be perfect as a dinner dress and would be ideal for the 'mother of the bride'; all set for the Easter parade is Deanna Prokop in a costume ensemble featuring a matching dress and coat in red, white and blue rayon. With it she wears a red straw hat and navy blue leather bag; Joan Karasti wears a dress and coat ensemble in black and white woven cotton accented with a wide black leather belt on the coat. A smart black and white fabric hat completes her costume. (Daily Press Photos)

Scott, 26, and Monique Dubois were married five days ago by Mayor Rene Popot in the small town of Chatain-court.

Students Ask 'Rights' Code

MARQUETTE (AP) — The faculty of Northern Michigan University took under advisement today a student endorsed three point plan including a so called students' bill of rights.

Students, in voting Monday, gave heavy support to all three proposals with 3,166 or about 56 per cent of the student body voting.

The bill of rights issue involved such matters as jurisdiction over disciplinary matters and off campus housing regulations. The students approved it 2,960 to 176.

A 2,740 to 395 vote was recorded on the second measure involving financial reform. It would call on students to pay 50 cents a semester into a student government activities fund.

Also approved, 2,899 to 253, was a relaxation in the curfew hours of women students. In general, the students proposed a 2 a.m. curfew, an hour later than now, for freshmen and sophomore students on weekends. For juniors and seniors and students over 21, the curfew rules would be abolished.

The student vote, which was advisory in nature, next goes to the faculty for consideration. That group then could recommend to the board of control that the program could be adopted and school sources indicated this course probably would be followed.

Greyhound Bill Killed In House

LANSING (AP) — The House gave a second and final defeat today to a bill which would have legalized greyhound dog racing in Michigan.

The measure, which had been beaten 30-75 in the House a week ago but later reconsidered, lost 27-73 today.

The first defeat was overturned after Rep. Bill S. Huffman, D-Madison Heights, indicated he wanted to amend the bill to take out the dog racing provisions and retain sections which would more closely regulate existing horse tracks.

But Huffman said today he had concluded that could not be done with the House bill.

Rep. Roy Spencer, R-Attica, sponsor of the dog bill, tried today to pass the measure with a provision that it would not take effect unless approved by voters in a referendum. He was unsuccessful.

Accident Or Self Defense, Hoehn Says Of Shooting

Attorney Clair Hoehn of Gladstone told a Circuit Court jury this morning that it is his theory that the gunshot death of Richard Schanno was an accident and that "if it wasn't an accident it was self defense."

Hoehn is representing Mrs. Ann Marie Schanno, 33, of Rte. 2, Bark River, who is on trial for first degree murder before a jury of seven men and five women.

In an emotional opening statement after Nicholas P. Chapekis rested the case for the prosecution, Hoehn said the defense will show that Mrs. Schanno feared for her life after repeated threats by her late husband.

He said that Mrs. Schanno will testify in her own behalf and that he will also call to the witness stand her oldest daughter, Sheila.

Regarding the shooting, Hoehn said Mrs. Schanno will testify that she first removed a holster and belt from a chest near the bed where her husband was lying and that she then returned to the bedroom to get the gun, which, he said, was also lying on the chest.

He said she will testify that she started to unload the gun and that when she was engaged in this process the victim stirred on the bed and said something and at this time the gun went off.

Chapekis introduced into evidence today the T-shirt the victim was wearing when he was shot, the weapon used in the shooting and ammunition and shell casings from the gun. Also introduced was the slug removed from the body.

Distance Specified

Det. Lt. Charles R. Meyers, Lansing, commander of the Michigan State Police crime laboratory, said he had made tests on the weapon, the slug, the T-shirt and the cartridges.

Meyers testified that in his opinion the shot which struck Richard Schanno was fired with the muzzle "held further from the shirt than contact and less than a distance of three feet."

He said that six test shots were fired in the crime laboratory through white cloth, two each from distances of six inches, three feet and four feet.

He said that the powder burns on the test cloth were compared with powder burns on the victim's T-shirt.

Because of damage to the slug removed from the victim, Meyers said he could not positively state it was fired from the .357 magnum revolver alleged in the shooting, but that it "could have been" fired from that gun. He said he was of the opinion that the shell casing Trooper A. J. Rajala removed from beneath the firing pin of the weapon was fired in the gun.

Safety Bar Cited
Meyers also testified that the .357 magnum could not be fired unless the trigger was depressed because of a "safety bar" which rides up and down in front of the hammer. He also said he would consider the trigger pull of the gun a "little lighter than average" but that it normally would be considered a "safe trigger pull."

The defense had made reference earlier on cross examinations of police witnesses that the gun could be "hair triggered."

Trooper Rajala, Sgt. W. I. Treichel, both of the Gladstone Post of the Michigan State Police and Det. Sgt. Wallace Pletzke of the Marquette Post were recalled to the stand to testify regarding an interview with the defendant in the prosecutor's office.

Delores Annear, secretary for Municipal Judge James Fitzharris who was called to the prosecutor's office to take a statement from Mrs. Schanno, also testified briefly. She said no questions regarding the incident were asked after she arrived.

The trial recessed Tuesday afternoon after only one hour of testimony from three witnesses — Mrs. Rosemary Budkis, 23, 522 N. 19th St., a divorcee whom the victim had been dating; Mrs. Daniel (Yvonne) LaPalm, Rte. 2, Bark River, a neighbor and friend of Mrs. Schanno; and Sgt. Wilbert I. Treichel, commander of the State Police post at Gladstone.

Mrs. Budkis, who testified most of Tuesday morning, was only briefly on the witness stand as Hoehn reserved the

150 Feared Lost In Ferry Sinking

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP) — An ocean-going ferry with 614 aboard ran aground at Wellington harbor's mouth today and capsized in one of the fiercest storms in New Zealand's history. Officials feared 150 drowned.

With winds of up to 123 miles an hour lashing the seas into high waves, the 8,944-ton ferry Wahine keeled over and dumped passengers and crew into the icy water.

A rescue armada of small boats dared the high waves and plucked many survivors from the water. Others escaped in lifeboats. Searchers reported 42 bodies had been picked up, either in the water or along three miles of shore stretching from the harbor entrance.

Wellington hospitals were packed with survivors suffering from injuries or exposure. Other survivors were in private homes.

As night fell, and searchlights swept the dark seas, officials said more than 100 passengers and crew were unaccounted for. Most survivors said that there

Police Sifting Slayer Leads

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The task of finding the person who killed Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. apparently has settled down to the grueling police routine of sifting every clue and checking every lead.

There was no talk of an early arrest, as there had been shortly after King was assassinated last Thursday night. Robert G. Dreury and John C. Moore, the two U.S. commissioners here, said they had not been approached to issue a fugitive warning by either the FBI or the U.S. attorney.

As federal officials pressed their manhunt, there were reports of arrests in various parts of the country and of a wide-spread search in Mexico.

The Mexican rumor started after Rolando Veloz, the Mexican counsel here, told authorities there was a resemblance between a composite sketch carried in a local newspaper and a young man who applied for a tourist card the day before King was shot.

State Hospitals To Be Licensed

Allan Barth, executive director of the Michigan Hospital Association, says the signing by Governor Romney of Michigan's first all-inclusive hospital licensing law as "the culmination of a quarter-century of unrelenting effort to commit all Michigan hospitals to the same high standards of patient care."

Barth lauded the Legislature and the sponsors of the bill for the licensure law.

The bill provides for licensing according to standards set by the State Department of Public Health and based on recommendations of a 12-member state health facilities planning council, yet to be named. Hospitals will pay a licensing fee based on $2 per bed with a minimum of $50 and a maximum of $500.

GLADSTONE

Gladstone MEA Protests Choice For Principal

Gladstone teachers who are members of its chapter of the Michigan Education Association have addressed the following open letter to the Board of Education of the Gladstone Public Schools; over the signature of Harold Anderson, president of the Gladstone Chapter:

The Gladstone Board of Education has been elected by the citizens of Gladstone Public School District to establish the policies and the philosophy of education that should govern the efficient management and the operation of our school system. Therefore, it is essential that they be qualified to fully represent this community.

Board members must be honestly motivated toward achieving and maintaining the best possible system of education for the people whom they represent. Every action that the board makes is very important. We realize that it is not an easy task to arrive at some decisions, but we also feel that every decision should receive your utmost consideration and should be made so as to retain the trust and confidence of those affected by the judgment. This is not only in reference to the recent selection of a principal; it should apply to all decisions.

Reasons For Protest

We, as members of the teaching profession, sincerely feel that as board members you should have exemplified a better code of ethical principles in the recent problem which confronted you in making your selection for the principalship of Gladstone High School. Our opinion is based on the following reasons:

1. We feel that the meeting should have been an open meeting. Why is it necessary to go into closed session when such an important judgment is to be made? If this was an executive meeting, as the minutes indicate, then no official action should have been taken.

2. Some taxpayers were misinformed about when a final decision was to be made. Also, one of the applicants was told that there would not be any quick decision on this matter, and that it would be likely sometime in April or later before a final decision would be made. Why were not these people informed about the sudden change?

3. We ask if the decision was within the spirit and intent of the Master Contract, Article VII, and in accordance with the provisions as posted when the vacancy occurred. In accordance with the posted notice, the principal is to assume his duties on July 1. Yet, the only two applicants who could qualify were by-passed. It is most difficult for us to believe that you, as our Board members, could have overlooked this as not being very important.

4. Without reflection on any applicant, how could you have been so misinformed as to the exact number of graduate hours that one of the applicants needed before attaining his Master's Degree? Was this of no concern to you?

5. Assuming that all the applicants did have the required degrees, should not experience and other factors have been considered? For example, should not the fact that two of the men who applied for this job served three or more years in the Armed Forces have been given some thought? Many schools give this their utmost consideration in a situation like this.

6. It is very difficult for us to comprehend why a man who has served as your principal for so many years was not even invited to attend your meeting. You must have had some faith in this man whom you have chosen to be your assistant superintendent of schools. It seems strange that he was not good enough to help or to assist you in reaching your decision. Also, should not the recommendation of the superintendent have received more consideration?

"Need Rapport"

7. Last, but not least, we feel that as board members you do have an obligation to know and to understand the problems of your school system on a much wider plane than has been portrayed in the past. We hope that in this day and age when we most need the zeal and the fire to have good schools, you are not content to ride along without a sharpened sense of values as to what is going on within your school.

It is vitally important that rapport within the school system be fostered and maintained so that the philosophy of the school can be implemented to its fullest extent. Needless to say, you have the responsibility and are in the best position, along with the superintendent, to see that this rapport is nurtured and maintained.

The Gladstone Board of Education three weeks ago announced the selection of William Wood, social studies instructor on the high school faculty as principal to succeed John Norton, who was named assistant superintendent. Wallace Cameron is superintendent.

GUARDSMEN OF CO. C of the 107th Engineer Battalion arrive back in Gladstone Tuesday afternoon after weekend duty at the Lansing Armory, waiting call to any racial troubles in Lower Peninsula cities following the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King. Here several guardsmen leave their jeep at the Gladstone Armory to check in after their long ride from Grayling. The company goes off duty tonight. (Daily Press Photo)

Guardsman Sees 1 Negro And He's Guard Officer!

Mike Utt, sports editor of the Escanaba Daily Press, is a member of Co. C of the 107th Engineer Battalion of the Michigan National Guard, Gladstone, which was called downstate by Governor Romney in the weekend to be ready to suppress violence in the wake of the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference on Thursday. His account of the trip follows:

Mike Utt

Our company, under command of Captain Stephen Fraddo, arrived back in Gladstone about 1 p.m. Tuesday after taking part in a 1,500 man reserve alert force of the Guard stationed in Lansing.

I saw only one Negro on the trip and he was an officer of the Guard.

We saw no disorders, did no patrol duty in any trouble zone, didn't even get to a city where there was any trouble, and I guess that was all right with the members of our company who did duty in the riot zone in Detroit last July.

Captain Fraddo said that the force assembled at Lansing was set up on stand-by basis for any need in the cities of Lower Michigan — Jackson, Detroit, Battle Creek, Lansing, Flint, Saginaw, Kalamazoo, and Grand Rapids, all of which have sizeable Negro communities.

Our company arrived in Grayling at 6:30 a.m. Saturday after an overnight ride from the armory at Gladstone and moved out to the Lansing Armory, arriving at 2 p.m. Saturday after a long and cold ride. Captain Fraddo said that the unit was not called for duty, but merely as a show of force to prevent further disorders.

There were 470 men stationed at this armory and the School for the Deaf and the Blind. While we were in Lansing mileage and route plans were made to go to any of the cities to which we might be called.

Co. C was being considered for call to Albion, Mich., on Sunday, but the local Albion police established order without guard aid.

While we were at the Armory the troops performed regular tasks like guard duty, maintenance of equipment, etc. There were no casualties in Co. C.

We left Lansing to go to Grayling at 11 a.m. Monday and left Grayling at 7:30 a.m. on Tuesday to return to Gladstone.

Co. C is on call until midnight tonight and the whole company is at the armory at Gladstone today stowing its gear after its trip downstate and cleaning its weapons.

The next drill will be April 20-21 a weekend exercise at Gladstone.

The company slept on cots in the Lansing Armory gymnasium floor. Food was served there. None of the men there moved out to duty stations in any of the communities for which they were being held, as there were no troubles requiring their deployment.

The men slept in their clothing, "not so much for readiness," one guardsman said, "as to keep warm."

We stayed right in the armory grounds the whole while we were there. It wasn't a tourist's view of the capital. We moved to Lansing and back in the back of two and a half ton trucks which are used by the Guard as cargo carriers, and in jeeps.

We arrived in Gladstone at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Our company has riot control training in its weekend drills. We had no riot guns on our Lansing trip, only our regular M-1 rifles and bayonets.

Canadiens Deepen Boston's Problem; Rangers Top Hawks

The Montreal Canadiens have Boston in an awfully deep hole. The New York Rangers, who know what it's like down there, are trying to dig one just like it for the Chicago Black Hawks.

Montreal dropped Boston to the brink of elimination in the National Hockey League's best-of-7 East Division playoffs with their third straight victory over the Bruins, 5-2 Tuesday night. The Rangers, meanwhile, who were eliminated in four straight games by the Canadiens last year, whipped Chicago 2-1 for their second straight victory over the Black Hawks.

In the only other playoff game played, the Minnesota North Stars walloped Los Angeles 7-5 leaving the Kings still in front 2-1 in their best-of-7 West Division series. Philadelphia and St. Louis, tied 1-1 in games, were idle.

The Canadiens, who split 10 regular season games with the Bruins, swept their third straight playoff game after some spectacular first-period goaltending by Gump Worsley took the wind out of Boston's strong start.

Worsley yielded an early goal by Ed Westfall but then held the Bruins off and Jean Beliveau's power play goal got the Canadiens even.

The Canadiens then packed goals by Claude Provost, Ralph Backstrom and John Ferguson into the second period and coasted after that.

Bobby Hull scored Chicago's only goal and spent about half the game on the ice, trying to help the Black Hawks snap a winless streak that has now stretched eight games—six during the regular season.

"He must have been out there 45 minutes," said Emile Francis, manager-coach of the Rangers. "Everytime I looked up, there he was."

Masters Field Is Completed

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Miller Barber, who finished eighth in the Greensboro Open, heads the list of the final six qualifiers for the 1968 Masters Golf Tournament.

The others announced Tuesday are Dave Hill, Charles Coody, Ray Floyd, R. H. Sikes and Kermit Zarley.

They were chosen under a complicated point system and secured their places in the tight, 76 man field on the basis of their performance in the Greensboro Open, which ended Monday.

ARNOLD PALMER, still the favorite among the galleries, is expected to attract huge crowds again this week at the Masters Tournament at Augusta, Ga. Palmer and Jack Nicklaus are the favorites.

Nicklaus, Palmer Rank As Masters Favorites

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — A field of 76 of the world's best. But even their magic presence on the lushly green Augusta National Course Tuesday—both were late arrivals—failed to generate the excitement usually connected with this, the first of the world's four major tournaments.

The crowds for the practice rounds were small and subdued. Palmer, amazingly, walked through a crowd unnoticed when he first reached the course.

Both Palmer and Nicklaus admittedly are pointing for this Masters. Each feels he needs it. Nicklaus, the 210-pound Ohio strongboy who has won all the world's major titles, practically owned the Masters crown until he fell apart last year and failed to make the cut. He had won three of the four previous Masters and set the scoring record. Palmer, the only four time winner, feels he is overdue. Among the other favorites are Billy Casper, two-time U.S. Open champion and winner of last week's rain-delayed Greensboro Open; flashy Doug Sanders, and England's Tony Jacklin, a 23-year-old who won the Jacksonville Open.

The final two rounds Saturday and Sunday will be televised nationally by CBS. The Saturday telecast will start at 3:30 p.m., EST. Sunday's round will be shown 4-5:30 p.m., EST.

Sports World Ends Dr. King Tribute

The sports world ended its three-day tribute to Dr. Martin Luther King today. Race tracks reopened, the major league baseball season started and numerous other scattered events resumed.

Pro hockey and pro basketball playoffs, halted for two days, resumed Tuesday night along with Yonkers, N.Y., Raceway and Liberty Bell in Philadelphia.

Ten baseball openers, seven in the afternoon and three tonight, were scheduled, but Baltimore postponed its Thursday night game against Oakland because of racial disturbances in Baltimore.

Horse racing had been shut down at Aqueduct, Hollywood Park, Gulfstream Park, Narragansett Park and Shennandoah. Florida had suspended all events with parimutuel operations. Harness racing begins again tonight at Batavia, N.Y., and Pompano Park along with dog racing and jai alai in Florida.

The $40,000 Sertoma Open bowling tournament at Mobile, Ala., postponed one day, begins today.

Betting parlors reopened today in Nevada.

Kern, Carol Fox Win Crowns In Table Tennis

Greg Kern won the 1968 Senior Men's Table Tennis Crown Tuesday night at Club 314 by defeating Dean Preaseau 21-12, 21-16.

Earlier Kern defeated Lee Robitaille 21-16, 21-17; and John Lark 21-9, 21-13.

Dean Preaseau advanced to the finals by defeating Bob Houle 21-6, 21-3, and Earl Dumais 21-16, 22-20.

Dumais took third place by defeating Robitaille 21-6, 21-6 in the consolation round.

Carol Fox won the women's title by beating Jill Peterson 21-11, 21-8.

Earlier, she had drawn a bye and then defeated Jalene Kidd 21-16, 21-19.

Jill Peterson gained the title game by defeating Donna Crepeau 21-16, 21-13, and Janet Rademacher 21-14, 21-18, 11-21.

Jalene Kidd captured third by defeating Janet Rademacher in the consolation round 21-14, 21-13.

The 17th annual pocket billiards tournament will begin at Club 314 Saturday with junior boys opening action at 1:30 p.m. Entry blanks are available at Club 314 or at the home of Paul Vardigan, 1415 16th Ave. S.

Three Baseball Openers Tonight: Cardinals Start Intact

By The Associated Press

The St. Louis Cardinals' World Series line-up should be intact for their belated baseball opener tonight but the Los Angeles Dodgers will be starting a 1968 comeback drive without Manager Walter Alston.

Atlanta takes on the world champion Cardinals at St. Louis, Philadelphia visits the Dodgers and Pittsburgh is at Houston in arduous games, completing a full season opening slate after two days of postponements.

Lolich To Miss Tigers' Opener

DETROIT (AP)—It looks as if Sgt. Mickey Lolich of the Air National Guard will miss the Detroit Tigers opening game against the Boston Red Sox.

Due to the recent civil disorders the talented Tiger southpaw was called up for active duty. A spokesman for the ball club says it's anybody's guess when he'll be back.

"Tell me when this trouble ends then maybe I can tell you when he'll come back," the spokesman said.

Lolich, along with about 3,000 other National Guardsmen, is on duty to avert disturbances in and around Detroit. Some trouble came after the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

The game was scheduled to start at 1:30 p.m. today at Tiger Stadium with Romney pitching a few balls to Cavanagh. Other pre-game ceremonies were set for 1:00 p.m.

The game was originally scheduled for Tuesday, but was pushed back a day, out of respect for Dr. King.

Tiger Manager Mayo Smith says his probable starting line-up and batting order will have Mickey Stanley leading off and playing first base, Dick McAuliffe at second base, Al Kaline in rightfield, Willie Horton batting cleanup and playing leftfield, Bill Freehan catching, Jim Northrup in centerfield, Don Wert at third base, Ray Oyler at shortstop and right-hander Earl Wilson doing the pitching.

Wilson won 22 games for the Tigers last year, as the team finished a heartbreaking second behind Boston, the American League champion.

In National League daytime inaugurals—deferred until this afternoon in respect to the memory of Dr. Martin Luther King—the New York Mets were at San Francisco and the Chicago Cubs at Cincinnati.

Washington met Minnesota in the traditional Presidential opener, with Vice President Humphrey expected to throw out the first ball as a replacement for work-laden President Johnson. Boston was at Detroit, Cleveland at Chicago, Oakland at Baltimore and California at New York in other American League opening games.

Maris Recovers

Roger Maris' recovery from a groin injury has virtually assured the Cardinals of beginning the season with the same cast that took the final game of the 1967 Series from the Red Sox.

Maris will bat in the No. 3 spot, ahead of National League MVP Orlando Cepeda, as the Cards open with bullet Bob Gibson opposing the Braves' Pat Jarvis.

"Gibson's the best in the National League right now," said Atlanta catcher Joe Torre Tuesday of the tall right-hander, who beat Boston three times in the Series. Torre, Hank Aaron, Felipe Alou and Deron Johnson give the Braves a formidable attack despite the loss of Rico Carty, out for the year with tuberculosis.

Alston, 56-year-old dean of major league managers, underwent successful surgery Tuesday night for removal of kidney stones. He's expected to be missing from the dugout for the first three weeks of his 15th season as the Dodgers' skipper. Coaches Jim Gilliam, Preston Gomez, Danny Ozark and Lefty Phillips will direct the club in Alston's absence.

Bunning To Start

The Dodgers, who reset their opener from Tuesday night after Philadelphia announced it would forfeit the game rather than play on the date of Dr. King's funeral, will send Claude Osteen against the Phils' Chris Short in a duel of southpaw pitchers. Los Angeles hopes to bounce back into pennant contention after tumbling to eighth place last year.

The Pirates, whose pennant prospects were brightened considerably by the acquisition of veteran Jim Bunning, have named the slim right-hander to pitch in the Astrodom opener, originally scheduled for Monday night.

Larry Dierker, one of the Astros' strong-armed youngsters, will be Bunning's mound opponent. The game marks the major league managerial debut of Pittsburgh's Larry Shepard.

The Senators-Twins opener, also pushed back from Monday in the wake of racial disturbances in the nation's capitol, pitted Washington's Camilo Pascual against Dean Chance of Minnesota in a right-handers' battle.

Minnesota, one of the pre-season AL favorites, and the Senators, eyeing a first division finish under new skipper Jim Lemon, met in D.C. Stadium, where federal troops on riot control duty were headquartered Tuesday.

Marichal Is Key

The Giants called on pitching ace Juan Marichal, the Mets on Tom Seaver, 1967 Rookie-of-the-Year, in their San Francisco sendoff. Milt Pappas pitched for the Reds against Joe Niekro of the Cubs at Cincinnati, where the traditional National League opener was to have been played Monday.

Dick Ellsworth, a journeyman left-hander obtained in a trade with Philadelphia, was Boston's opening day pitcher against the Tigers, who countered with big Earl Wilson, a 22-game winner last season.

The Red Sox, forced to begin their pennant defense without pitching ace Jim Lonborg and slugger Tony Conigliaro, are counting on Triple Crown winner Carl Yastrzemski to take up the slack.

Alvin Dark, Cleveland's new manager, tangled with former teammate Eddie Stanky, the White Sox' pilot, at Chicago. Joe Horlen was Stanky's pitching choice. Sonny Siebert started for the Indians.

At Baltimore, another city disrupted by violence after the assassination of Dr. King, young Tom Phoebus pitched for the Orioles against Oakland's Catfish Hunter. Baltimore started the season without pitcher Pete Richert and shortstop Mark Belanger, who were called up by the National Guard because of the racial unrest.

Brunet Starts

The A's, who have moved from Kansas City to Oakland, unveiled a new manager, Bob Kennedy, and had ex-Yankee great Joe DiMaggio, a club vice president and coach, in uniform for the opener.

California southpaw George Brunet got the starting assignment against New York right-hander Mel Stottlemyre as the Angels opened at Yankee Stadium, where a threatened strike of groundskeepers and maintenance men was averted Monday with the ratification of a new union contract.

Celtics Return To Home Court

By The Associated Press

The Boston Celtics will be trying to retain the home court advantage they gained last Friday in Philadelphia when they tangle with the 76ers there again tonight.

The game will be the second in a best-of-seven series in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division playoffs. The 76ers are the defending champions.

In the Western Division, San Francisco plays tonight at Los Angeles, which also holds a 1-0 lead in the playoffs.

"Sometimes there is a tendency to let down at home, and if we let down any tonight we are in trouble," said Celtics captain John Havlicek.

Some observers have questioned the importance of the home court edge when these two arch-rivals meet, but the record is clear enough.

Boston and Philadelphia are facing each other in the Eastern finals for the fourth straight season. In the other three meetings, covering a total of 17 playoff games, the home team came out with a 14-3 margin.

The 76ers, thanks to their season-long supremacy in the regular Eastern Division race, earned the extra home playoff game. But the Celtics took it away by winning the opener 127-118 in Philadelphia last Friday night.

Both teams were well-rested after the long layoff occasioned by the postponement of the second game from Sunday to tonight because of the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.
